

Jochen Mertens

Attorney at law, specialist in tax law.
DOB: 1972, partner

Jochen Mertens has been a partner of the business law firm of Selting+Baldermann since 2001. An expert in tax law, he specializes in advising the management of mid-sized firms on questions relating to company formation, conversion, purchase, succession and liquidation. Jochen Mertens also develops solutions for company-internal shareholder disputes and liquidation optimization. Mr. Mertens has been admitted to the Cologne District Court and Higher Court of Appeals.

Specialties

Company and tax law.

Working history

Partner in the business law firm of Selting+Baldermann (since 2001); consultant in corporate taxation at a major law firm (2000).

Education

Studied jurisprudence at the University of Cologne (1993-1999).

Publications

“A Managing Director’s Liability at a German GmbH”
(“Die Haftung des GmbH-Geschäftsführers”),
“Impulse”, November 2002 issue.

Memberships

KAV, Kölner Anwaltverein e.V.
(Cologne Bar Association)